Aug 19

Parents,

Today we learned that big heroes exercise self-control. King Saul had gone mad. He was angry with David and determined to end David's life. So David was on the run. One night, David encountered Saul without Saul noticing. David could have easily killed his pursuer. But David exercised self-control and spared the life of his king. When we have self-control, we can be heroes like David.

1 Samuel 24. David Spares Saul's Life.

Memory Verse:

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us."

-Hebrews 12:1 (NIV)

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why did Saul want to kill David?
- Why did David spare Saul's life?
- What does it mean to have self-control?
