

Parent,

Today we talked about Jesus' unbelievable commitment to us. Jesus had the power of God in his hands, and he withheld it through trials, torture, and humiliation so he could save us. We can show our love for God by being committed to serving Jesus in return. What commitments does your child have in the coming weeks? Discuss them with your kids, whether it's showing up to a game, practicing music, or just making an appointment. Use these commitments as a jumping off point to discuss their commitment to Jesus. Spend some time alone with God this week, and spend some time praying with the kids. Make a commitment to both of these this week, and ask God to instill that commitment in your kids.

Memory Verse

"Why do you look for the living among the dead. He is not here; he has risen!" - Luke 24:5b-6a (NIV/NIRV)

Here are some great conversation starters:

- What things happened to Jesus the day he was crucified?
- Why didn't Jesus defend himself from all these terrible things?
- How can we live committed to Jesus?
